Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information. Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - The Filing Organization has an extensive grant application process that must be adhered to before any grant funds are awarded. In addition to completing the basic application, all applicants must complete an extensive financial worksheet to demonstrate their need for our crisis grant award. The applications are reviewed by the Filing Organization's employees and are awarded based on pre-determined, specific criteria, including demonstrated need. Once an applicant has completed the application process and has been approved for a crisis grant, the Filing Organization will make payments directly to the third-party institution to cover the applicant's living expenses or other expenses covered by the awarded grant to ensure the grant funds are used appropriately.
